THE NIGHT OF LIGHTS

Reykjanesbær's Night of Lights, a cultural and family festival, held the first weekend in September each year and focuses on extensive events from Thursday to Sunday, although the festival sometimes extends beyond that. It always reaches its peak on Saturday evening with a grand concert on an outdoor stage, the lighting of Bergsinn and a magnificent fireworks display. The festival takes place on the weekend of the first Saturday in September.

A cultural focus is the hallmark of the festival, and music and art have always been at the forefront, as the town is a long-standing musical town.

Various regular events characterize the festival, including an opening ceremony where the children of the town play a leading role, the openings of new art exhibitions organized by the Reykjanesbær Art Museum and exhibitions throughout the town following, Skólamat meat soup, a yearbook parade, a float drive, a grand concert on an outdoor stage, fireworks displays, and more.

THE VENUE

Ljónagryfjan – The Lions Den

For decates, the Lions Den has been the homeground for Njardvik basketball team. Winning 19 national championship titles has made that small and compact venue the most dreaded away venue for any basketball team in Iceland. Today the elementary school next door uses it as a gym for the kids.
